

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1963

H:

We, the graduating class of 1963 began to group together on the Clinton Junior High School in September, 1957, what is now the most young class of Daniel Webster High School. Let's pause a moment and look back on those never-to-be-forgotten memories of our youth.

With Clinton as the new meeting grounds, we each pulled up stakes and moved to various sixth grades in the spring of 1957. After a long summer of anticipation we convened on the grounds of Clinton for our first meeting.

The girls came armed with a full supply of warpaint in the form of face paint. This was a new experience for them, and they soon discovered how to use it. It was to share it with the boys. We realized the first day that we were no longer to march in single file from one class to another, and we were to assert our independence so long kept hidden by grade school wardens. The day passed, and so did we--most of us, that is!

The eighth grade year was one of less excitement. Boy, did we love the idea of passing fads--slam books, leotards, white lipstick, and the dreaded walk-outs. Remember the eighth grade party when everybody was invited? The girls lined up on one side of the gym and the boys on the other, exchanging evil-eye looks at one another.

During our last year at Clinton we received a taste of the power we had as we attempted to rule the school. But it was difficult to tell whether we were attending a school or an art gallery as pictures and plants popped up everywhere. Who can forget those interesting tales of Mrs. Allen's ranch and grandson?

Later in our triumph year a banquet was held to mark our last year at Clinton. Murmurs could be heard all over the beautifully decorated hall as: "Keep your arm up," or "Who spiked the tea?" "Now meanwhile we are leaving the ranch--"

As we walked down the steps of Clinton, our paths led us to a new er. Karen Artz and Margaret Breedlove were elected secretary and of this notable class. Our class sponsor, Miss Eunice McArthur, "My Greatest Ambition Party!!" and an afternoon at Skyline. Karen Tom Gann had the lead roles in our Sophomore play "Green Valley." spark of beauty were our lovely queen attendants Diane Rose and

e. Sophomore Brave was Richard Ryan.

In our junior year it was definitely a woman's world. Our class by president Lana Conner, vice-president Carolyn Conlsey; all records by secretary Diane Rose and treasurer Judy Childers. This year ated another comedy "Galahad Jones," with Karen Artz and Ken Shiplet bars. Later under the direction of our sponsor Mrs. Mary Dickerson d a junior riot. Our theme was "Those Wonderful Years." The party ge success when everybody came dressed in the fashion of his year. This was a successful year; we adopted standarized rings uncements and helped decide on summer delivery for our yearbook.
ready for our first A.F.S. student.

Our royalty this year was Pam Wayland and Jerri Anthamatten, tendants; and Gary Sumerall reigned as junior Brave. This year
bers from our junior class were on the state championship baseball

Now came the year which we had all been waiting for, our Senior for the first time in two long years we were ready to rule again.
n fate dealt us a fatal blow--we were confronted with the dealings v assistant principal, Mr. Tucker. Our intended glory, momentarily , revived, however, as the year continued. A number of things d this year.

The final results of the class election came as somewhat a e with three boys taking top honors: Gary Sumerall, president; lton, vice-president; Mike Trout, treasurer; and our one and only ddens secretary

Again the selection of royalty was upon us. Pam Burke elected Miss Daniel Webster XXV with Judy Egbert and Peggy Wyre as attendants. Gerald Frye was chosen as Warrior Chief and Rich Ryan as Senior Brave.

This year's senior play "Our Town" changed the trend c serious drama with Kenneth Shiplet playing the role of the Stage and Anne White and Mike Parrish in the romantic roles.

Along with this exciting year we also had the pleasure entertaining Webster's first foreign exchange student, Kari Moxn Norway.

As our senior year draws to an end and as we all close chapter in our lives, we know we are passing through the thresho tomorrow. To many of our classmates, we say "So long," but for is only the beginning of a long walk together down the trail ahe

MEMORIES

As we members of the Senior Class of 1963 of Daniel Webster High are near to the time of our departure, we feel it most necessary to go back through time and do a little reminiscing, remembering, and a little gossiping.

But before we go back too far in our Time Machine, let us review incidents that have happened within the past three years.

We wonder how Johnny Scribner's feet felt the day he did the dive from the drafting room window. Oh, yes, John: did Calmus show you that $5.00?

From our most factual source of information, we have heard the story of Carolyn Conley at a slumber party and the strange things she did there. Liquids, liquids, liquids!

And how can we ever forget Sonny "Hog-tied" Johnson and his on-campus trip around the campus!

Were you ever as lucky as some of us? We got to see Mr. Woods own Union on his way to school, and shaving at the same time.

Well--enough for the past three years; let's travel further in our Time Machine-----Wait a minute! Here's one more incident from days at Webster: Our spy would like to know if Sara Cole and Phil ever ran outside for air raid drills?--That could prove to be most

!

Z-o-o-o-o-m! Back through space in our Time Machine and we pause a few minutes at Clinton Junior High School to find out what some of us were doing then.

First question we want to answer is this: Why did Gary Sumerall and Allen.

Then there's a question for David Paulding and Ronnie Durbin.
Do you two hide your cigarettes now? You used to hide them in Mr.

Another question to answer at Clinton: Haggerty, Brown, and just who did you lock in the towel box?

----Now, here we go--back, back, back in our Time Machine--this s 1955. Look at the wonderful things that happened this year:

Arleene Williams had a very strong 4th grade crush on Wade Mack.

Janie Cotton and Bonita Goins held a "hot-meat sandwich" eating -Janie won with 13 to her credit.

Tom Maxwell held an envied position--and for all we know he still resident of the Kissing Club.

Dickie Bird Ryan and Slim Sue Howard were singing duets.

Tom Gann was skipping class to play jacks with the little girls.

Carolyn Conley and Don Gammon were playing some kind of game behind teria.

Judy Egbert and Judy Micek were supposedly hunting onions, but uld find the right kind of leaves to give themselves poison ivy.

Z-O-O-O-O-M again! This time back to our pre-school days: And Carolyn Conley again--this time with Paul Perisho. Golly! Wonder still remember taking baths together?

Z-O-O-O-Ka-Pow! Well--it blew up--no more Time Machine--things too rough.

So--that's the end!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1963

We, the members of the 1963 graduating class of Daniel Webster High School, 919 West 40th Street, Tulsa, Oklahoma, being of sound mind and on this 24th day of May, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine hundred Sixty-Three, declare and publish this last Will and Testament.

Our girls would like to leave their lovely tank suits to the boys whose poor things have nothing to wear.

Our boys would like to leave Anthony (Lover-Boy) Mott to any junior, or sophomore, to use as needed.

Our boys would like to leave his Edison girls' phone numbers to Dennis (Big) Harrison.

Our boys would like to leave Lana Conner and her Sunday best hillbilly clothes to her so she'll be top model saleswoman at Clarke's next year.

Our boys would like to leave his role as "Tuffy" to Darrel Ramsey.

Our boys would like to leave his good looks, loud mouth, and extreme conceit to Jim (Big) so he'll be free of his inferiority complex.

Our boys would like to leave failing slips, Monday mornings, substitute teachers, semester tests, 30-minute lunch periods, Mr. Woods, Mr. Masters, Mr. Dick, Mrs. Johnson, Miss Davis and lots of luck!

Our boys would like to leave one unused clothespin to Sugar-Plum Terry Cooper for his lapping mouth.

Our boys would like to leave his ideas on music to anyone who would dare accept them.

Our boys would love to leave Mr. Dickerson all his conservative

Our boys would like to leave her Girls' State opportunities to Greg Morgan. She's a real "take advantage of the opportunities" to make new friends.

Our boys would like to leave his lovely Edison to Ken Gray as if he didn't have trouble already.

Our boys would like to leave his "hotty" car to anyone who will pay the over-ride tickets on it.

Our boys would like to leave his magnificent ability to get along with his girl to poor old Ken Gray.

Our boys would like to leave his success with women to the junior boys--that's about all they deserve.

Our boys would like to leave his curly hair to Jack Scott. It's all he needs to get a date.

Our boys would like to leave her ability to pass Latin when it's all Greek to her.

Our boys would like to leave her skirts to Pat Rice so she won't have to shorten any more skirts to keep up with the present styles.

Our boys would like to leave his Volkswagen to Norma Edgmon so she won't have to drive

Setting: News office of DWTW

News Reporter . . . Janie Cotton
 Weather Reporter . Conna Keeney
 Sports Reporter . Pat Caffey

REPORTER: Hello, everybody in DWTW-land. Tonight we have a special newsreel taken at Daniel Webster, or is it Gary Bennett, High School.

Our number-one news photographer, Ronald Rogers, was on the spot today as the graduating class of '63 held its annual reunion in center hall. We hope you enjoy the film.

(APPLAUSE)

Couple . . . . . Gary Smith and Peggy Wyre Girls . . . . . Carolyn Conley, Sue Buster, Dianne Rose
 The Boy . . . . . Tommy Maxwell
 Special Delivery . . Tommy Gann
 The Groddy . . . . . Phil Byers
 Mr. Daniel Webster . Gerald Frye
 Cheerleaders . . . . Patsy McGough, and Pam Wayland
 Song Leader . . . . . Mike Trout

REPORTER: Please stay tuned for the weather and sports which follow immediately. Weather will be brought to you by our outstanding weather forecaster Conna Keeney and sports by that great sports announcer Pat. Caffey.

REPORTER: Ladies and Gentlemen--there is only one weather item of interest in the entire world tonight.

Dateline: Paris, France. It is raining! I repeat--it is raining--it is raining hard--rain is coming down by the bucketfull. And in all of Paris only one--I repeat: only one person does not need an umbrella: Built entirely with her own "do-it-yourself" hat she has her own protection from showers. Who, you ask. Who is she? She is the only one person in all of Paris who does not need an

REPORTER: In golf today--

Carl Higgins has just won the P.G.A. golf championship. The tournament was held at Par 3 golf course in Tulsa.

On the baseball front--

The L.A. dodgers defeated the Cards today, 9-8, on Tom Maxwell's solo homer in the ninth. The losing pitcher was Boe "Wrong arm" Clary.

The New York Yankees have just bought Tom Gann from Cleveland for $20,000. Tom is now the American League's highest paid bat boy.

Pro Wrestling News--

Tonight's main event at the Cimarron Arena pits the tag team "Abe" Sumerall and "Big Ed" Hamilton against "Spider" Frye and "Bear" Brown.

In other action tonight "Red" Rush will go against "Crusher" Hamilton in a scheduled 3-round event.

Pro-football news--

"Big Daddy" Hamilton and "Mighty Mike" Trout of the New York Giants football team have just been fined $500. each for a 10¢ bet on the Greenbay game.

Basketball news--

Jim Haddock of the Boston Celtics was the recipient of the annual Gary Smith award for his outstanding performance on the basketball court.

In Tulsa--

Olympic pole vaulter Larry A. Miller will speak to the Tulsa high school coaches in a banquet today. The title of his speech will be "Pole Vaulting for Fame and Fortune."

Olympic low-hurdler Don Ramsey will also be a guest at this function. He will give a short review of his latest book, that stirring novel of ancient Rome Ben Hurdle. Ramsey has also written several other books about track, such as A Cinder In My Knee and The Hidden Persuaders. Who Put the Tacks on My Low Hurdle?

CLASS SONG

words by Sarah Cole and Mike Parrish

Happy Days Are Here Again

Happy days are here again,
The skies above are clear again;
As our days at Webster now we end--
Happy days are here again.

As we leave this school today,
There's no one who cannot but say,

"They're a real swell bunch, we wish they'd stay;
But they're leaving us today.

Their years of study are done;
They've got the world on the run."

'r days at Webster now we end,
We build the world for future men;
We can build, and change, and start again
All the valiant deeds of men.

(SPEAKING:) And now to the world, we graduates say:

Hello, Hello, Hello

Class: Hello, Hello, Hello
We shout to the world "Hello!"
Hello, Hello, Hello;
Goodbye, Alma Mater, we go.
The best of all our efforts we are givin'
To make the world a better place to live-in.
Hello, Hello, Hello,
We shout to the world, "Hello!"